PRAYER BREAKFAST Attorney General William Barr warned of “a new orthodoxy that is actively hostile to religion” in a videotaped address to the National Catholic Prayer Breakfast. Barr received the organization's Christifideles Laici Award. Archbishop Charles Chaput said Barr's award was well deserved. “Throughout my life, the men and women I've most admired have all had the same qualities: a thinking Catholic brain, a character of substance, and a moral spine. General Barr has all three,” Archbishop Chaput said. “As an added bonus, he's disliked by all the right people.” READ
